

1. Choose the more basic. Explain the difference.

2. The following compound is a stronger base than many ordinary amines. Which nitrogen is most likely to be protonated and explain why it is stronger than other amines?

3. Propose three syntheses of the following primary amine. We have covered at least four!

4. Complete the following reactions.

